RELIGION AS TAUGHT BY THE "SAINTS"

On Nuuanu street just mauka of Hotel street, a religious sect known among themselves as Saints has been holding meetings in an empty store for several nights running. For confessions and general fanatic actions, they have got a negro camp meeting skinned to a standstill.
They disclaim any relation to the Holy Rollers, but assert that they are the advance guard of a new religion, or, as they state it, exponents of the true religion in the form as prescribed by God.
The services consist mostly of jibbering in an unknown tongue and rolling on the floor in the exaltation of the Holy Spirit.
Mr. Turney, the leader and evangelist of this queer religion, when under the influence of the spirit, is certainly a queer representative of the meek and lowly Nazarene.
